

THE NATIONAL GAME.

THREE IN SUCCESSION.

The Virginia Game Association has been organized.

Another large crowd, numbering about 1,800 persons, with one hundred or more ladies, witnessed the last of the three games between the Nationals and the Virginians at the latter's park yesterday afternoon.

The sun was shining brightly, but the weather was just warm enough to be pleasant, and was especially propitious for ball-playing.

"Play" began just a few minutes before 5 o'clock, the home boys at the bat. Powell and Fulmer formed the Nationals', and Kimber and Tate the Virginians' battery.

The visitors succeeded in blanking the home boys up to the seventh inning, while they, on the contrary, made one at this point.

Kimber, the boys began to hit, and in the eighth completely rattled him. Pyle, first to the bat, was retired on strikes.

Greenwood made a two-bagger; Latham followed with another, bringing Greenwood in; Nash followed with a single, advancing Latham to third; Johnston made a single, bringing in Latham and Nash.

Hestole second, and came in on a wild throw from second.

Householder then knocked the ball over the right-field fence--the first clear ball ever knocked over there.

At this point the crowd became very enthusiastic--they waved their hats, umbrellas, and buggies, clapped their hands, and cheered for several minutes.

After this Householder was cheered every time he went to or from the field.

Johnston scored a little "off" in batting.

He was leading in batting, the visitors altogether played a good game.

They made five hits, but were unable to bunch them, consequently they did but little good.

The victory for the home team was a perfect and pleasant surprise to the crowd.
